

I totally oppose the proposed relaxation of FCC rules on broadcast ownership. Surely this will benefit large corporations and NOT the public, which has a right to a diversity of views even from small outlets.